

The Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC) is the search committee tasked with finding the Pastor/Head of Staff to fill the position after John Willingham leaves. It is a committee elected by the congregation to discover who God is calling to serve DPC in the years ahead. Their work will include extensive, careful and prayerful evaluation of potential candidates. This culminates in a vote by the congregation to approve the person to be called as the next pastor.

Committee Nominees

Kate Adriaansen. Kate is a 22-year member who lives with her husband, Don, in Doylestown. They have three grown children. Kate has served as a Deacon, as a teacher for Sunday School, a VBS volunteer, and Hurricane Katrina volunteer. She is active in Growth Groups, and volunteers as a teacher's assistant at Hunting Park Christian Academy. Kate is a Banking, Marketing and PR Director who works in recruiting and hiring talent. She has also worked with search firms to evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of candidates and their embodiment of the culture fit.

Judy Chang Cody. Judy is a 26-year member who lives with her husband, Kieran, in Doylestown. They have four grown children. Judy is a sitting Elder and has previously served as Clerk of Session. She is on Worship, Music and the Arts, and the Peace and Justice Committees. She has also served on two search committees for DPC's Organist and Director of Communications positions. Judy is active in Growth Groups, the Church Mouse program and rings with the Joyful Bells. Currently, she is the Chief Strategy Officer for a local start-up, and a marketing professional with extensive project management experience.

Jonathan Craig. Jonathan is a 25-year member and has been attending DPC since he was a child. He has served as a Deacon and twice as an Elder. Jonathan has been involved in many committees and groups at DPC including Mission, Adult Education, Personnel, History, Nominating, and Membership. He currently teaches the Connect Sunday School class and is active in the DPC Dads small group. Jonathan has worked for 15+ years in the pharmaceutical industry in various consulting and management roles. Currently, he leads the Patient Data Solutions team at Janssen. Jonathan and his wife, Megan, met in Sunday School at DPC and have four children.

Anne Hutchinson (Moderator). Anne is a 6-year member. She is active on the Adult Education and Senior Adult Ministry Committees and serves as a Deacon. She is a retired senior executive in Human Resources whose professional career included 20-plus years of generalist Human Resources experience followed by 25 years in executive search efforts. She had responsibility for recruiting senior corporate executives across multiple disciplines within the pharmaceutical, biotech, consumer products and chemicals industries.

Frank Roland. Frank is a 15-year member who lives in Furlong with his wife, Kristen. They have three children. Frank served as an Elder, a youth leader, usher, and greeter, on the Personnel, and Youth Committees, and moderated the Community Protection Program Committee. He is a urologist with Doylestown Health. Frank has 25 years of experience working with patients and families in a variety of clinical settings with different healthcare needs. Frank offers care and sensitivity throughout his patients' health journeys.

Dave Sager. Dave is a 14-year member who lives with his wife, Sharon, in Buckingham. They have an adult son and love spending time with their grandson. Dave served as an Elder, on the Adult Education, Finance and Outreach Committees, and is active in Growth Groups. He is a retired Pharmaceutical Executive spending 32 years in the Medical Imaging Industry and the US Marine Corps. Since 2019, Dave has served on the Commission on Ministry at the Philadelphia Presbytery.

Deirdre Hally Shaffer. Deirdre is a 10-year member of DPC where she has served as Deacon Moderator and a Growth Group leader. Other church roles include service on the Nominating Committee, Connections

Task Force, and Women's Retreat planning group. As a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, Deirdre has provided counseling services via her private practice since 1990. She is a Board Member for the non-profit Americans for Native Americans, a proud mother of three grown children, and one very excited grandmother-to-be.

Art Shull, Jr. Art Shull is a 43-year member of DPC. He has been an Elder, Deacon, Sunday School teacher, Youth Group leader and involved in other activities such as Growth Groups and the Community Meal. He has managed a large dairy farm for the last 40 years. Art and his wife, Mary, were married at DPC and had the privilege of watching their own children grow up as part of the DPC church family, also marrying in our beautiful sanctuary. Art is now enjoying watching his grandchildren grow up in this church.
