

Doylestown Presbyterian Church

Volunteer Job Title: Wednesday Club Volunteer

Reports To: Becca Bateman, Associate Pastor for Education and Family Ministries

Time Commitment:

- Wednesday Club meets on Wednesday evenings from 5:30-7:15pm, during the program year (September through May). Volunteers should be present by 5:15pm and remain on-site until all participants have departed for the evening (approximately 7:30pm).
- Volunteers may be asked to help chaperone additional events for this age group
- Wednesday Club volunteers are asked to make a minimum of one-year commitment, though a longer commitment is encouraged.

Purpose: The purpose of this role is to nurture meaningful relationships with Christ and one another, while cultivating a lifelong exploration of faith and servant leadership, within a welcoming and supportive community of adult volunteers and children grades two through six.

Duties: Wednesday Club volunteers may fulfill any number of duties, as determined by the Associate Pastor for Education and Family Ministries. Some of these may include:

- Supervising a shared meal and helping to facilitate discussions and connections
- Helping to implement lessons and facilitating group discussions
- Assisting with mission projects
- Helping to organize activities, games, crafts, and special projects

Requirements and Training:

- All Wednesday Club volunteers must go through Doylestown Presbyterian Church's Community Protection Program (CPP) certification process, including an application, background checks, and a brief training. CPP certification is valid for five years.
- We seek warm, supportive volunteers with an understanding of the unique developmental and spiritual needs of children and youth.
- Older youth are welcome to volunteer, provided they have been CPP certified.

To Volunteer: To sign up as a volunteer for this role, click here. If you have questions or wish to learn more about this role, please contact Becca Bateman (Associate Pastor for Education and Family Ministries) at beccab@dtownpc.org or Chris Graham-Rawlings (Member Engagement Coordinator) at chrisr@dtownpc.org.

Be a bridge for Christ and a beacon of His love.