

Doylestown Presbyterian Church

Volunteer Job Title: Matthew 25 Subcommittee Member

Reports To: Bev Jewusiak, Moderator

Time Commitment:

- The Matthew 25 Subcommittee meets, as needed, on the first Tuesday of the month at 7:00pm. Meetings generally last between one and two hours.
- In addition to meetings, subcommittee members have some duties to carry out that are aligned with the mission of the subcommittee.
- There are no term limits imposed on subcommittee members (except for the Moderator, who has a three-year term limit). New subcommittee members generally begin in June, though they can also join the subcommittee at other times of year, at the discretion of the Moderator.

Purpose: The purpose of this volunteer role is to support the subcommittee as it joins with other Matthew 25 churches in our denomination to seek to address the structural racism that harms so many of our brothers and sisters of Christ, as we strive to fulfill God's call to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Duties: Members of the Matthew 25 Subcommittee, as a team, engage in a variety of tasks, which include:

- Helping to lead the congregation in examining our history, both as a country and a denomination, with respect to structural racism and its intersection with poverty
- Supporting the congregation in learning about ways to advocate for those affected by structural racism
- Engaging in educational opportunities with the larger congregation
- Forming diverse relationships within our surrounding community

Requirements and Training:

- We seek volunteers with a passion for social justice.
- No specific training is required to serve on the Matthew 25 Subcommittee.
