All Are Welcome in God's House

People's Preparation

“Transfiguration” refers to a change in form or appearance. At Transfiguration of the Lord, we celebrate the revelation of divine glory in the human life of Jesus Christ. Jesus' radiant appearance on the mountaintop evokes the consuming fire of the glory of the Lord at Mount Sinai.

Spiritual

*Call to Worship

We gather not because we have it all together, but because God meets us here.

We come carrying wonder and weariness, hope and hesitation.

On the mountain, Christ is revealed, not to overwhelm us, but to awaken our listening hearts.

Speak, Lord. We are listening.

Here, in this place, may we be open to grace, willing to be changed, and ready to follow where love leads.

We come to worship the God who meets us in light and shadow and calls us beloved. Amen.

Confessing

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, we confess that we often want the light without the vulnerability it reveals. We want clarity without surrender, transformation without humility. We confess that we try to manage what must be received, and explain what can only be encountered. Forgive us when fear keeps us from trust, and pride keeps us from listening. Meet us again with mercy. Open us to your grace. Shape us by love.

Responding

*Litany for Transfiguration of the Lord

Blessed is the Lord our God, who revealed the law to Moses.

The Lord our God is holy!

Blessed is the Lord our God, who has spoken through the prophets.

The Lord our God is holy!

Blessed is the Lord our God, who came to us in Jesus Christ.

The Lord our God is holy!

The one who spoke and called light out of darkness now shines in our hearts.

The Lord our God is holy!

The one who comes and does not keep silence now speaks in our midst.

The Lord our God is holy!

Now we have seen the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

The Lord our God is holy!

Great God of dazzling beauty and overshadowing majesty, in Jesus Christ, your beloved, we glimpse the image of your glory.

Teach us to listen to him so that we may hear your voice and follow your holy way; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
