The Powerful Gift of Being an Appreciator

With Special Guest Tracey Gates

Saturday, February 21 at 10 am in the Celtic Cross Room

Joy deepens when it is shared, and connection is often where joy begins. Kindness ambassador and author Tracey Gates will guide us through ways we can cultivate the space to create a more meaningful and abundant life filled with empowering, uplifting, and connecting energy simply by sharing our kind thoughts.

RSVP or visit
bit.ly/DPC-TRACEY

In Tracey's book, The Power of A Few Kind Words: Create a More Meaningful Life One Letter at a Time, she shares her quest to write a handwritten unexpected letter of appreciation to a different person every day for one year. What she found on her transformational journey is that being interested in those around us is one of the kindest and most nourishing things we can do both for ourselves and others. In this free gathering sponsored by the Connections Subcommittee, we will explore how this can strengthen bonds within our church family, and also out into the community and the greater world.

Tracey is a longtime member of The Presbyterian Church of Lawrenceville (NJ). Her leadership and gifts were greatly appreciated by both Mac and Katy Schafer during the years they served on staff in that congregation.

2026 LENT AT DPC OUT IN THE ELEMENTS

As our Book of Common worship says, "Lent comes from an old English word for springtime, perhaps connected with the lengthening of days in this time of the year in the Northern Hemisphere. The season of Lent is a time for growth in faith - through prayer, spiritual disciplines, and self-examination in preparation for the commemoration of the dying and rising of the Lord Jesus Christ."

As I read over the lectionary scriptures for Sundays in Lent, a common theme emerged. Things we experience out in God's creation: plants, wilderness, birth, water, mud, valleys, sunrise, and more. With all this in mind our theme will be Out In the Elements.

We'll explore how God uses creation to deepen our faith and discipleship over this six week period.

Coming back to life

Devotions and Activities For Lent

On Sunday, February 15 we will make available printed copies of our 2026 Lenten Devotional, Coming Back to Life. The introduction to this devotional says, "During winter, much of the world goes to sleep. And in spring, a truly amazing thing happens, no less amazing because it happens every year: The world comes back to life...we'll explore two great books - the Book of Scripture and the Book of Nature - looking for treasures that can help bring us back to hope, back to love, back to life!"

The devotional suggested a weekly ritual that we encourage you to incorporate into the rhythm of your week at home.

Mac's Meanderings

Pursuing Unity in Times of Disagreement

Back in 2018, the Reverend Don Meeks, a minister from Greenwich Presbyterian Church gave a keynote talk to the 223rd General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA) in St. Louis, MO. He handed out these great blue cards that were titled, "My Covenant for Pursuing Unity in Times of Disagreement." I've always appreciated his thoughtful urgings, which are undergirded in scripture. Here they are:

In light of John 17:20-23,

I will pray for and live towards unity with other Christians.

In light of Matthew 7:3-5,

I will acknowledge my own prejudices, excesses and failings before I attempt to criticize or correct other Christians.

In light of Proverbs 18:13 and James 1:19,

I will seek to listen with understanding before speaking my own concerns.

In light of 1 Peter 3:15-16a,

I will contend for my convictions with gentleness and respect out of reverence for Jesus Christ.

In light of Romans 12:10 and 18,

I will trust that the intentions of those with whom I disagree are honorable, and speak the best of what I see in their efforts to serve Jesus Christ.

These encouragements, no doubt, can be difficult at times. We will certainly fail from time to time. But ultimately these are good reminders to hold ourselves accountable to.

Let's transform our conflicts!

PS: Here are the scriptures referenced above...May the Word of God dwell in you richly...

"I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. - John 17:20-23

Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's eye, but do not notice the log in your own eye? Or how can you say to your neighbor, "Let me take the speck out of your eye," while the log is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor's eye. - Matthew 7:3-5 love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. - Romans 12:10 & 18

If one gives answer before hearing, it is folly and shame. - Proverbs 18:13

but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence. - 1 Peter 3:15-16a

Worship & The DPC Library: The Saint John's Bible

Recently the library of DPC acquired the seven volume set of the Saint John's Bible by way of an anonymous donation. It is the first handwritten illuminated Bible commissioned by a Benedictine monastery in over 500 years. The project was conceived by Donald Jackson the former Senior Scribe and Illuminator at the Crown Office in the House of Lords. It took a team of artists 15 years to complete 1,100 handwritten and designed pages in partnership with the Benedictine Monks of Saint John's Abbey in Collegeville, Minnesota.

If you'd like to have a look at this amazing work please visit the library. A volume of the set is always on display on a wooden stand. Also purchased is a small book that describes in detail each illumination in the Bible. These volumes will be used on the communion table in worship along with a large lectionary edition of the gospels.

Exploration of Pathways to Immigration Justice

Due to recent wintry weather, this class series was forced to reschedule talks from Rev. Dr. Samuel Arroyo to March 8 from 9:30 to 10:15, and Professor Zeke Hernandez to March 15 at 4 pm. Both presentations will occur in the Celtic Cross Room.

Rev. Dr. Samuel Arroyo - Biblical & Theological Impact

March 8: Rev. Dr. Samuel Arroyo from Princeton Theological Seminary will present: "From Brokenness to Wholeness: Biblical, theological and ethical responses to migration." The presentation will highlight how biblical narratives, liberation theology, and Jesus' ministry challenge fear-based, nationalistic interpretations of faith. By centering the dignity and sacred worth of immigrants, this lecture urges faith communities to move beyond abstract moralizing toward concrete action—creating spaces of safety, justice, and holistic care that transform despair into hope.

Prof. Zeke Hernandez - Economic Impact

March 15: Professor Zeke Hernandez from the Wharton School / University of Pennsylvania will draw on insights from twenty years of research to highlight the ways immigrants contribute to the nation's economic vitality. He will also discuss how current approaches to immigration create practical challenges for businesses and the broader economy. This session offers a clear, research-driven overview designed to deepen understanding and dispel common misconceptions surrounding immigration and economic growth. This talk will be offered at 4 pm.

*A limited number of copies of Prof. Hernandez's book "The Truth About Immigration" will be handed out for free (first come, first served).

Attendance numbers were large for the first two sessions led by Juan Navia from Immigrant Rights Action / The Welcome Project PA and William Stock, Esq. from Klasko Immigration Law Partners. A packed Celtic Cross Room clearly shows how important this topic is to so many within the church and the wider community. We hope you can attend these final two sessions next month.

Many thanks to those who donated blood in Andrews Hall on Tuesday, December 30. Your efforts saved the lives of up to 90 hospital patients. During a time when we are in a blood shortage this means so much." We hope to see you again in August at our next collection at DPC.
